W. O. SMITH SEEMS

FORGETFUL OF LW

(From Saturday's Advertiser)

Editor Advertiser: In this evening's Bulletin, Hon. W. O. Smith is quoted as saying: "Mr. Kinney's memory fails him slightly." * * * The law of 1888 to which he refers had to do only with election day. It did not include the campaigning period.

I do not care to enter as a party to the controversy between the two gentlemen, but in the absence of Mr. Kinney deem it proper to call attention to the provisions of Section 88, Subhead 8, of the election law referred to.

If not trenching too much on your valuable space it might be of interest to have the whole general section relating to "Corrupt Practices—Bribery" republished at this time.

EVERY CANDIDATE AT ANY ELECTION WHO SHALL, PERSON-ALLY OR THROUGH ANOTHER PERSON, OR BY ANY WAYS AND MEANS ON HIS BEHALF, ON ELECTION DAY OR THE DAY IM-MEDIATELY PRECEDING OR FOLLOW-ING AN ELECTION, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, GIVE OR PRO-VIDE, OR CAUSE TO BE GIVEN OR PROVIDED, OR SHALL BE ACCESS-ORY TO THE GIVING OR PROVID-ING, OR SHALL PAY WHOLLY OR IN PART, ANY EXPENSES INCUR-RED FOR ANY MEAT, DRINK OR ENTERTAINMENT, OR PROVI-SION TO OR FOR ANY PERSON, IN ORDER TO BE ELECTED, etc.

This controversy brings every candidate and the voters generally to the bulking of the law.

The law as now operated under defines expenses legally incurable as follows:

Section 33. The following expenses, and no other, may be legally incurred by or for a candidate for election as Senator or Representative (and county officers by provisions of the County Act), viz:

1—His personal expenses as a candidate.

2—Expenses of printing and advertising.

3—Cost of stationery and postage.

4—Expenses of public meetings.

5—Rent and supplies of committee rooms, not to exceed one for each polling place.

6—Salaries of not more than one clerk and two messengers for each polling place.

7—Salaries of not more than one watcher on election day only, at each polling place.

Section 31 reads as follows:

Within twenty days following any election, each candidate, and each agent or committee acting for or on behalf of any candidate, shall file with the Secretary of the Territory an itemized statement of his or their expenses by, for, or on behalf of such candidate

COMMERCIAL NEWS

By Daniel Logan.

"Putting the wires underground" is a subject that has been overlooked by all the improvement clubs and their central organization. Yet there is hardly anything that has been discussed for improving the city which would yield a more telling result on appearances than this very thing. The incident of laying a telephone cable from King street to the Capitol, for serving a private exchange comprising the public offices in that building, suggests the subject of underground wires as a timely one for revival. Henry E. Cooper, while in the government, formulated a scheme to construct conduits for burial of the electric wires inside the city limits, which should return interest on the investment, and perhaps a sinking fund to redeem the capital outlay, from rentals to be paid by the various companies owning the electrical conductors. Although the scheme was not advanced to any practical issue, no doubt the data of it are still available. It is respectfully submitted to the Central Improvement Committee that the project might be taken up and investigated, with a view to promotion either as a public work or a private enterprise under a public charter. The electrical concerns might be able to figure out a pecuniary advantage to themselves in the long run from the saving they would make over the expensive maintenance of their pole lines.

SUGAR AND STOCKS.

Some restraining spell has apparently hung over the Stock Exchange the past week, which the talent does not attempt to explain. Excepting Tuesday there was little doing any day of the week and yesterday the sales record was blank. As prices have strengthened in the majority of variations noted, the slow market may only mean increased tenacity of grasp by holders of the more desirable stocks. There is nothing except a net decline of $2.80 a ton in the parity for beets, so far as the sugar market is concerned, to affect the exchange of stocks. Centrifugals remain, as for weeks past without any fluctuating, at $80 a ton. Beets, from $79.80 a week ago, have oscillated to the present quotation of $77.

Higher figures are quoted for Hawaiian Com. & Sugar Co., Hawaiian Sugar Co., Kihel, Oahu, Oolala, Oloa, Olowalu, Pioneer and Waialua in plantations.
The most notable advance is that of Olowalu which, from $80 bid and $75 last sale, stands $98 bid and $100 last sale. The asking price of Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co. has gone up, and $140 is bid for Hawaiian Electric against $132 1-2 last week.

Transactions for the week have been as follows: Waialua ($100), 10 at 67.50; 40 at 68; Kihel ($50), 30 at 8.25; Oahu ($100), 35, 38 at 117.50; O. R. & L. Co.
($100), 5 at 90; Oolala ($20), 50 at 8.25; Ewa ($20), 200, 15, 20 at 25.25; I. I. S.
N. Co. ($100), 60 at 125; Onomea ($20), 50, 200 at 39; Olowalu ($100), 108 at 100; Hawaiian Sugar Co. ($20), 15, 25 at 35; Waialua ($100), 40 at 68; Hawaiian Ac-cultural Co. ($100), 12 at 125; Pioneer 68, $2000 at 104.

At a meeting of stockholders of Oahu Sugar Company on Friday the directors were authorized to have the par value of shares of the capital stock changed from $100 to $20 as soon as they found convenient. The change will probably take place when new certificates can be printed.

REAL ESTATE MATTERS.

James F. Morgan, as court commissioner, sold under foreclosure of mortgage from Henry Vieira, Sr., to E. H.
F. Walter a lot on the northwest side of Nuuanu avenue, containing 1740 square feet, to T. R. Mossman, trustee, for $2550. A deficiency judgment for $3935.50 was entered by the court in confirming the sale.

At his salesrooms yesterday James F. Morgan sold, by order of executrix, the residence of the late Mrs. Jane Wilson on the east side of Nuuanu avenue, the lot having a frontage of 29 feet and a depth of 152 feet, to Mrs. E. McGregor for $1710. Also, under foreclosure of mortgage from Hana Heela and husband to S. Apolina, one and five-tenths acres of land at Ewa, subject to mortgage, to the order of P. L. Weaver for $60.

Instruments have been recorded as follows: Mortgage by John Gaspar and wife to H. Hackfeld & Co., Ltd., of land and buildings at Auwahi, Honolulu; three leaseholds, 5 shares Kona-Kau Telephone, 15 shares Kona Bottling Works, life insurance policy, etc., six pieces land, buildings, merchandise, livestock, machinery, etc., Keel, North and South Kona, for $15,000. Deed from Wong Tai Chuck and wife to Harriet E. W. Wright of five pieces of land, Kamakela road, Beretania avenue and King street, for $7000. Deed from Oscar Sellers and wife to John T. Gulick of block 3, College Hills, for $3600. Deed from Queen's Hospital to Hawaiian-American Rubber Company of land in Koolan, Maui, for $3600. Deed by Oahu College trusttees to Jane McCorriston of 9375 square feet land in Punahou street for $4000.
The government has decided to dispose of its lands on the island of Lanai, being 47,448 acres of the total area of $6,400 acres, by exchange with other for election, showing each amount expended, the purpose or object for which each expenditure was made, and the person or persons to whom made; which statement shall be sworn to by each person making such expenditures and shall be open for public inspection.

When was Section 86 of the election law of 1888 abolished? How many of the candidates for election today will pledge themselves to see it reenacted?
Here it is:

Section 86. Any candidate who fails or neglects to furnish the list prescribed by Section 39 (now Section 30), or the sworn statement prescribed in Section 40 (now Section 31), or when such list or statement shall be false in any particular, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment at hard labor not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the Court.

And if he shall have been elected, and it shall appear that the expenses exceeded the amount by this Act allowed, or were incurred for any purpose hereby forbidden, his election shall be void and he shall not be eligible for reelection for four years.

How many sworn returns will be made for this election that would stand the test of old "Section 98"?
I repeat: How many of the candidates for election today will pledge themselves to see it reenacted?

BUSINESS MEN ARE NOT FOR STRAIGHT TICKET

(From Sunday's Advertiser.)

About a score of representatives of the large business houses and the banks assembled yesterday morning, on brief and informal notice from the legislation committee of the Chamber of Commerce, at the offices of H.
Hackfeld & Co., Ltd.

Abounding rumors as to the purpose and the proceedings of the gathering, which quickly circulated in political gossip, varied in tenor, and for some time it was difficult to find anyone who had been present who would talk of the event. It soon became evident to an Advertiser reporter that the reticence was not due to any pledge of secrecy, but rather to a modest reluctance on the part of each one seen to be quoted as the press agent of a very informal gathering. Once the ice was broken, however, a frank statement of the object of the meeting and the nature of its discussions was given by a member of the committee.

"What suggested the call," this gentleman said, "was the announcement made this morning that a new candidate for the Senate had been nominated. Whether intended to split the native vote or not, the nomination of so popular a man as Mr. Beckley would tend to that result.

"Among the business men there is a strong feeling that the legislative election is of greater importance than the county election. If we have a legislature divided into warring factions, without a controlling and sensibly directed majority, good and desirable legislation cannot be expected.

"W. O. Smith made a very good speech at that meeting. He regretted as much as anybody that county affairs must be mingled with the campaign to obtain a good Legislature, but as this condition could not be helped they must make the best of it.

"To gain the best possible results all round, in the circumstances, he advised that one set of candidates ought to be supported—in other words, the straight Republican ticket. Otherwise, unfit men, unamenable to the discipline of reason, might slip into the Legislature.

"Mr. Smith said that the Republican ticket contained a good choice of representative native Hawaiians. It was of very great importance that good faith should be kept with the natives who had pledged their support to candidates of the white race. If a breach of faith were made in this regard by white voters now, Mr. Smith warned the meeting, nothing could be expected two years hence but that the native voters would flock by themselves and produce a deplorable race division in our politics.

"Several followed Mr. Smith with remarks, but no action was taken or resolution presented.

"For my own part," the informant continued, "I was strongly opposed at the beginning of county government to have the legislative and county elections held at the same time.

"It was objected by some large employers at the time that separate elections would cause a loss of two days.
If it cost two weeks of time the elec-

Keeping Promises

Honolulu Appreciates Always When Promises Are Kept.

Every time you read about Doan's Backache Kidney Pills you are told they cure every form of kidney ill, from backache to urinary disorders.
How are our promises kept? Ask any citizen who has tried the treatment.
Ask the following Honolulu man.

W. J. Maxwell of this town, Truant officer, writes thus: "I suffered with a horrible pain in the small of my back (an almost invariable symptom of kidney trouble) for a number of years. I was advised to take some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, and following the suggestion I went to the Hollister Drug Co's store, Fort street, and got some of these. Having taken them, they relieved me straight away, and are, I may say, the best and in fact the only cure for backache. I have mentioned the virtue of this wonderful remedy to several persons, among whom is my friend, Mr. Frank Metcalf, who found relief, and he is now a firm believer in Doan's Backache Kidney Pills."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all chemists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50, or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
